Buckhead Heritage hires executive director

November 28, 2008

The Buckhead Heritage Society has hired Christine McCauley as executive director to oversee the organization's preservation projects, develop and implement membership and fundraising programs, and begin to implement the group's strategic plan.

Buckhead Heritage, formed in 2006, is close to completing its three-year restoration of Harmony Grove Cemetery at the corner of West Paces Ferry and Chatham roads and is evaluating other preservation opportunities, according to its president and board chairman, W. Wright Mitchell.

McCauley, who began with Buckhead Heritage on Nov. 17, has a bachelor's degree in geography and a master's in historic preservation from the University of Georgia. She is a native of Buckhead and graduated from The Lovett School. She recently served as executive director of the Chattahoochee Hill Country Conservancy and the Madison-Morgan Conservancy. □
