Randolph Lucas Mansion Gets 120-Day Reprieve

The historic home will be safe at least for the next four months, and the Buckhead Heritage Society hopes it will be moved by then.

The historic Randolph-Lucas Mansion, which sits in front of a condominium complex at 2500 Peachtree Road, will be saved, at least for another 120

On Tuesday, the Buckhead Heritage Society signed an agreement with the condo association for the four-month reprieve, which prevents the 1920s-era home to be torn down during that period. The Buckhead Heritage Society is hoping to save the home in that time.

Wright Mitchell, president of the Buckhead Heritage Society, told Patch in September that roughly 10-15 inquiries have come in about the house, which is owned by the condominium association at 2500 Peachtree Road.
